MEDICINAL

ACROSS COUNTRY.

The signs of the times point to an enormous increase of intelligent public interest in health; to a new generation with purer, stronger blood and therefore more active, braver brains and body. No physically robust, healthy person ever succumbed to grip, consumption, malaria or any other germ disease. But with a weakened system we all have to fight the germs of disease. Our blood is often in a feeble condition for the growth of bacteria—the germs of disease—because our stomach is disordered or our liver is torpid—in either case our blood does not get the proper nourishment. A torpid liver means a stagnation of the blood and an accumulation of poisons which furnishes a weak spot for bacteria to enter.

To enrich the blood and increase the red blood corpuscles, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, that would quickly cure the bad symptoms by increasing the red blood corpuscles and thereby feeding the nerves on rich blood. This "Medical Discovery" also acts upon the digestion and assimilation of food, so that the blood gets its proper elements from the products of digestion. Feed the lungs, stomach and heart on rich red blood and you have surely a healthy body which will throw off the germs of disease which lurk everywhere. Get as near a medicine made entirely from botanical extracts and which does not contain alcohol is the safest. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

CLAIMS SHE WAS BLACK-MAILED.

When Hannah Elias, the negress under arrest in New York for extortion, goes on the witness stand in her own defense tomorrow, she will tell, it is expected, a story of how she was black-mailed for years, and how threats of exposure of the relations between herself and John R. Platt drew thousands of dollars from her, a great part of which money Platt furnished, knowing for what it was to be used. Following her testimony, two warrants will probably be issued for persons who rendered professional services to the negress, one of them a physician, the other a lawyer.

August C. Nanz, who was the woman's lawyer for a time, said last night that Mr. Platt consulted him about letters threatening exposure if money was not paid to the writers. The full extent of the "bleeding" process, it is believed, amounted to a round $100,000. It will probably be easy to prove the procedure, because part of the money was paid by checks. The scheme was started, it is declared, with a bill from the physician out of all proportion to the services rendered. In being paid, paved the way for other demands. In turn these were met and others followed them. The Elias woman will testify that she complied with the demands upon her, until, in desperation, she refused to pay more. Then a suit against her was threatened. She told Platt of the demands, of the impending suit, which would in all probability disclose more than he or she desired, and he yielded to the blackmailers' demands.

No names of "other prominent men," it is said, will be dragged into the case, because, according to the woman, Platt was the only man that was "bled." The Platt lawyers served their injunction papers upon the woman in her cell in the Tombs late yesterday afternoon, thereby tying up her money. She was arraigned yesterday and held in $50,000 for examination next Friday. Bail was not furnished, and she was committed to the Tombs prison. Justice Clarke, in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon issued a writ of habeas corpus for the woman returnable today.

When the prisoner was taken from her cell to a cab, in which she was taken to the Tombs court, she was met by a jeering crowd, which filled the street around the police station. The woman accompanied by two detectives, entered the carriage, and the start for the court was made. Just as the cab started, however, a large express wagon drove directly in its path, and the crowd closed in, many men climbing onto the wheels to peer into the vehicle. The woman appeared much frightened, but it developed that the crowd was more curious than threatening. Assisted by several patrolmen, the detectives succeeded in clearing a passage, and the carriage continued to the court.

Sunday School Editors and Publishers.
The National Association of Sunday School Editors and Publishers was welcomed at its initial meeting yesterday morning in the chapel of the Presbyterian Publishing House in Richmond by Rev. Dr. James P. Smith, chairman of the publication committee, and Rev. Dr. J. A. McKamy, president of the association, delivered his annual address. A number of papers by distinguished men were read. The topics, "Advanced Lessons" and "General Supplemental Lessons," aroused the liveliest interest, and the charge that the Sunday school leaders of today are not abreast of the secular educators in the matter and manner of the instruction of the young was sharply denied. It was stated that the graded course of instruction now provided for the Sunday school is founded upon the most advanced pedagogical principles, and the best results of the investigations of students of pedagogy are now applied in the presentation of Bible truth. The association adjourned at 1 o'clock for a trolley ride to Seven Pines and other battlefields. A business meeting was held last night.

No Confederate Flag.
Reno Post, Grand Army of the Republic, at Hagerstown, Md., advised the Henry Kyd Douglas Camp, Confederate Sons of Veterans, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., who participated in the Confederate Memorial services at Hagerstown on Sunday, not to bring with them their Confederate flag. Reno Post sent a letter to the camp in which was the following: "As one of your most eminent commanders, General Wheeler, has said that we have but one flag and one country, it would be very prudent in you to follow this motto, and we would kindly advise you to leave your Confederate flag at home and bring Old Glory instead to avoid trouble." The Shepherdstown company did not bring its flag, but carried a banner, four by six feet, made of sky blue silk, in the center of which was the emblem of the Confederate flag.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.
Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; anti-septic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. E. Creighton & Co.
